COLIN APPLETON

Manager, Swansea City Football Club

Good evening everyone. Welcome to the Vetch Field. Those three points still elude us, but you know, most people would say you only get what you earn, or you only get out what you put in. If we apply that to our performances on the field this season, I would have to say that it is true. The players haven't put in enough commitment to merit or justify any other results; that is something you don't have to pay for, it should be expected — do old habits die hard? I have asked you to be patient, I have realised we are a young team but after 90 minutes and the result isn't there, that becomes an excuse.

Unfortunately the habits required to win don't start with skill, that is nothing without enthusiasm, determination and dedication.

So where does that leave me at this particular time? I'll return the question by asking how quickly do you want the circumstances to change? It could be a while with the old habits to break down and rebuild, or on the other hand with that right commitment it shouldn't be so long.

I have been involved with the club long enough now to know the basic problems; I shall be putting those to the Board of Directors as soon as a Chairman is appointed.

Our opponents this evening, Bolton Wanderers, find themselves in a similar position to ourselves and I'm sure they will be battling hard to recover some lost ground. This gives us a good chance to gain some pride so obviously I'm looking for far more commitment in all departments.

Welcome to the officials and players of Bolton Wanderers. May your fortunes change after tonight.

Have a safe journey home and thank you for coming.

MALCOLM STRUEL Chief Executive

Once again people within the game and indeed, for that matter, many outside it, have been questioning the relationship of television and football. In particular a great deal of renewed criticism has been attracted at the concept of the 'live' game.

The issue is a complex one and one that has been debated at very great length at a number of Football League meetings. It is perhaps not without significance that much of the comment in our newspapers emanates from people who have not been present at these discussions and are, as a consequence, somewhat less than well informed. It is, on a purely superficial basis, not difficult to make a case for or against the live game or for that matter, in respect of any kind of televised football. This is a matter upon which I have spoken on many occasions in the past and there is clearly not the scope within the confines of this short article to discuss the issues involved in depth. However, in essence, the quandry resolves itself around one simple question, to which unfortunately there is no simple answer. The question (but not the answer) is this — at what point through television does promotion of the game become exploitation?

There are a couple of basic points which should be kept firmly in mind.

1. The new contract comes up for renewal in the next nine months and it is not a moment too soon for Clubs to be deciding upon a strategy as to our negotiations with the television authorities. I am aware that contact is being maintained between the negotiating parties and that is useful and sensible but this hard bargaining must begin now. In the past we have invariably been forced in to a position where we have had to make hurried and illconsidered decisions.

2. The current monies received from the television authorities are abysmal and unless we can get a substantial increase then I firmly believe football should be taken off television. In terms of a substantial increase I am thinking of not less than a 50% increase on the current figures based on the same number of live games. I think it would be dangerous to increase the number of live games unless the offer made by the television authorities was one which could not be sensibly refused. Knowing, however, the attitude of the television authorities, I think that such an offer is unlikely. Certainly I think there will be general agreement that the day of edited highlights of football other than on a fairly moderate basis is over.

Battle stations are now being prepared and I think it very likely that this argument will again become a dominant feature in the sports pages of your newspapers as well as on television and radio.

BOLTON WANDERERS

Few among present day Swans fans will need much prompting to remember that exciting FL Cup tie at the Vetch in October 1976 when the team which Harry Griffiths had built from nothing gave Wanderers a real fright. At that time we were in Division Four whilst Bolton, seeking to restore their club to its former glory, were in the Second and heading for the First. Indeed, that season, they reached the FA Cup semi-final, which puts the performance of Harry's side on that day into perspective. Whilst, eventually, we lost the replay at Bolton, the Bolton manager claimed that we had played the best football he had seen from a Fourth Division side.

In all we have met Bolton twelve times in the English League. All those games took place either in Division Three or Division Two. Of those, without doubt our most successful pair of games were those during season 1980-81. We won 4-1 at

Bolton to record a fine away win (Leighton James, Alan Waddle (2) and Neil Robinson scoring for us), then won 3-0 at the Vetch. The teams for that Division Two game were:

Bolton: Poole; Graham, McElhinney, Burke, Jones, Brennan, Nikolic, Whatmore, Hoggan, Thomas, Gowling; Sub: Thompson.

One feature of that memorable Vetch game was a Leighton James "hat-trick" which included two penalties.

Swans connections with Bolton include Jackie Roberts and Ernie Jones. Both these players were Swansea Schoolboys who went to Wanderers before the War. Ernie came back before Jackie and was an exciting winger.

LOTTERY DEPARTMENT

Welcome to Carroll Davies who has been seconded to this department to assist Bob Smith and Bill Richards in the various promotions that will be taking place throughout the season.

Our main aim is to get the maximum number of ticket sales out of the West Wales area. By achieving this objective, we can proudly say that through our efforts, we have given Colin Appleton and his staff all the encouragement that he needs in obtaining new players when required.

These three gentlemen will be covering this vast area at all times, so if you feel you can assist the Football Club by joining this happy team, by enlisting as an agent, then please don't hesitate to get in touch with us — we shall be only too pleased to help you establish your agency.

For those of you living down in Pembrokeshire, have no worries, we have recently appointed a main agent, who will be covering Pembroke Dock, Pembroke, Haverfordwest and right through to Carmarthen. Our aim is to cover all areas, and these areas will be controlled by main agents who will, in turn, come under the expert guidance of Bob, Bill and Carroll.

We have areas locally, i.e. Swansea and surrounding parts, that could be transformed to main agent control, so if there are any of you who have had previous experience of this type of operation, please get in touch with us. Full training and advice is always available to any would-be agent or main agent.

Let's all get together and help to swell the "City Kitty".

Tony Pullein writes...

Third Division Scene GREAT START BY GILLINGHAM

Gillingham, who come to the Vetch Field a week on Saturday, got away to one of their best starts on record. And the man behind their success is their giant striker, Tony Cascarino, who scored in each of their opening three League matches.

Cascarino's third goal of the season clinched victory over Cambridge that put Gillingham on top of the Third Division table. At six feet two inches, and thirteen stone, Cascarino is a difficult fellow to keep under control and he says he's looking for his most productive season to date.

In his first full season in the side in 1982/83, he was the Gills' leading scorer with 18 goals. Last season he netted 13 times.

Even if Cascarino has a quiet day, Gillingham have three other players who have been very sharp in front of goal. Mark Weatherly, John Leslie and David Mehmet all scored three goals during the early weeks of the season.

The Third Division's most prolific scorer so far is Derby's Kevin Wilson who scored four times in a Milk Cup tie against Hartlepool and then followed up with a hat-trick in his next game against Bolton, today's visitors to the Vetch. Wilson grabbed his trio against the Wanderers within the space of 38 minutes. Another goal, in Derby's 1-2 defeat at Preston, made Wilson the division's leading scorer with eight goals.

Bournemouth's Bill Rafferty, now with his eighth club, scored a second-half hat-trick in 26 minutes to give the Cherries a 3-0 home win over Rotherham. The Swans are due to visit Bournemouth immediately after our home game with Gillingham.

On the opening day the Cherries gave a most impressive footballing display to beat Derby County 1-0 at Dean Court. Their victory over Rotherham means they are 100 percent at Dean Court where they have not conceded a League goal.

Yet, when they faced Fourth Division Aldershot in the Milk Cup, Bournemouth crashed 0-4 in the away leg and lost 0-1 at home.

The team everybody expects to do well, York City, has been living up to expectations. Last year's runaway Fourth Division champions — the only club in League history to top 100 points — were behind Gillingham only on goal-difference after three games.

We saw them at the Vetch quite recently when they took away the points in a 3-1 victory. A week later they scored a 2-0 home win over Newport County. Keith Walwyn scored two of their goals at Swansea but it was John Byrne who led their scoring list with four goals after five games had been played.

York scored a fabulous 8-2 aggregate victory over Doncaster Rovers in the first round of the Milk Cup and now face a glamour tie with Queen's Park Rangers. It will be interesting to see how their brand of football fares on Rangers' plastic pitch.

Many Third Division clubs who survived the first round have come out with plum games in the next round. Bristol Rovers travel to Arsenal in the first-leg to face a Gunners' team that is stepping up its scoring rate.

There's little doubt that the Third Division club who will make the biggest profit will be Burnley who have two local derbies against Manchester United. Walsall also have a derby tie, against Coventry City, though they cannot expect too big a share-out from that one.

Bradford City, who came here last Saturday, face Newcastle United, a First Division side with a truly appalling Cup record against smaller clubs in modern times.

Millwall have agreed to surrender ground advantage in the first-leg of their derby tie with Chelsea. Lions' manager George Graham, a former Chelsea player, was delighted with the draw, though a little worried about possible crowd troubles.

"I sincerely hope everyone will be sensible and enjoy what can be a most exciting confrontation," he said.

Both sets of supporters have already been in trouble this season.

When Brentford were drawn against his former club, Leicester City, the Bees' manager Frank McLintock was very happy. "We would have preferred a game against more of a glamour club, to give us good gates in both legs, but looking at this one I think we stand a chance of getting through."

Reading's 100 percent League record crashed with a bang when they were defeated 1-4 at Elm Park by a Doncaster side beaten by five goals at York a few days earlier.

One of the most difficult sides to beat looks likely to be Hull City, who conceded only one goal in their opening five League and Cup matches — and that was an own-goal conceded by one of their own defenders!

The Tigers' new player-manager is Brian Horton, the former Luton midfielder player, and his influence is certainly showing on the field. Hull drew 0-0 at Lincoln in their opening League game, then hit Bournemouth 3-0 before drawing 0-0 at Bolton.

In the Milk Cup, Hull beat local rivals Lincoln City in both legs to take the tie 6-1 on aggregate. They now face Southampton in the second round.

Plymouth Argyle, who reached the semi-final of the FA Cup last season, could hardly have been given a tougher Milk Cup draw. Their "reward" for beating neighbouring Torquay United 2-0 over two legs was a trip to Birmingham City for the first-leg of round two.

Birmingham, managed by Ron Saunders, won their opening four games in the Second Division and are clearly hoping for a very quick return to Division One.

BOLTON FACE UPHILL BATTLE

Poor results from their opening League matches have left Bolton with an uphill battle, first to pull clear of the relegation zone and then to mount a promotion challenge. Though the Trotters pulled off a magnificent performance to dispose of Second Division Oldham Athletic in the Milk Cup, their main ambition is to regain the Second Division status they lost in 1983.

Manager John McGovern is hoping things will work in reverse this season. For, a year ago, Bolton kicked-off with four successive victories. Even so, it soon became clear that they would not achieve an immediate return to the higher division.

Mr. McGovern used the opportunity to blood several new players in the side. Simon Farnworth, Steve Saunders, George Oghani and Jim Phillips were all introduced to League football for the first time and several other players were only into their second senior season.

The Bolton manager made only one close-season signing — Paul Lodge, a midfielder player, from Preston.

Bolton were beaten 0-1 at home by Bristol Rovers on the opening day of the new season and then went down 2-3 at Derby. They produced their first point from a dour goalless draw with Hull City at Burnden Park just over a week ago.

The Wanderers excelled themselves in the Milk Cup though. They defeated Oldham 2-1 in the first-leg at Burnden Park and then took part in an extraordinary return match. At the end of 90 minutes Bolton found themselves 3-4 down on the night but level on aggregate. An extra-time goal from Jeff Chandler gave them a 5-4 aggregate success and a crack at another Second Division side Shrewsbury Town, in the next round.

The Bolton team this season has been selected from the following:

SIMON FARNWORTH (Goalkeeper). Simon completed his apprenticeship at Burnden Park and was introduced to League football against Wimbledon on the opening day of last season. He held his place for practically the entire season.

BRIAN BORROWS (Defender). Brian joined Everton as a schoolboy and he made his First Division debut in 1981/82. He made a total of 27 League appearances for the Toffees before transferring to Bolton two seasons ago.

GERRY McELHINNEY (Defender). Gerry's impressive displays in Bolton's rearguard over the past three seasons earned him a call to international duty last season. He played in N. Ireland's final five matches and he was in the squad for last week's World Cup clash with Rumania. Bolton signed him from Distillery for £25,000 in 1980. Two seasons ago, when he lost his place in the Bolton side, he spent half a season on loan to Rochdale.

PETER VALENTINE (Defender). Peter was introduced to League football by Huddersfield in 1981/82 and made a total of 19 League appearances before his transfer to Bolton in 1983. He missed only four games last season.

NEIL BERRY (Defender). Neil played for the Scotland youth team during his apprenticeship days at Burnden Park. He got his first chance in the Trotters' League eleven three seasons ago.

RAY DEAKIN (Defender). Ray served his apprenticeship with Everton and he remained at Goodison Park until 1981, though he didn't get a game in the Toffees' First Division side. He spent the 1981/82 campaign with Port Vale and moved to Bolton at the end of it. Since then he's been a regular member of the Bolton team.

JIM PHILLIPS (Defender). Jim is the latest player from the youth team to get his chance in League football. He was included in the side for his first full game against Bristol Rovers for the opening match of this season and played in the first three games. Jim made one brief appearance as substitute last season.

PAUL LODGE (Midfield). A former England schoolboy international, Paul served his apprenticeship with Everton and made 24 appearances in the Toffees' First Division side. Following loan spells with Wigan and Rotherham, he was transferred to Preston two seasons ago and moved on to Bolton this summer.

WARREN JOYCE (Midfield). Warren graduated to first-team duty at Burnden Park two seasons ago and he missed only one League game last season.

GRAHAM BELL (Midfield). Graham joined Oldham from a local club, Chadderton, turning professional in 1973. He made his League debut a year later and made well over 150 appearances for the Latics before joining Preston for £80,000 in 1979. Graham spent three seasons as a North End first-teamer and, after a loan spell with Huddersfield, returned to Deepdale. He moved on to Carlisle in 1983 but stayed at Brunton park for only a few weeks before signing for Bolton.

STEVE THOMPSON (Midfield). Steve is another Bolton apprentice to come through to the first-team. He got his initial chances two seasons back and won a regular place last term.

JEFF CHANDLER (Forward). Jeff ran into top form last season when he was second-highest scorer with 17 goals and he was quickly off the mark this term with three goals in his first four games — two of them from penalties. A skilful winger who began his League career with Blackpool in 1977/78, Jeff was transferred to Leeds in 1979. Bolton secured his signature for £40,000 three seasons ago.

TONY CALDWELL (Forward). Tony enjoyed a fine first season in League soccer when he led the Wanderers' scoring list with 22 goals last season. He joined the club from Horwich RMI during the summer of 1983 and was still only a part-timer when he scored five goals in one game against Walsall. Tony found the net twice in Bolton's first five games of the current season.

GEORGE OGHANI (Forward). George made his League debut as substitute at Wimbledon last January and made only one full appearance last season. He has been holding his place this season and scored two of the goals that helped Bolton knock Oldham out of the Milk Cup.

Swansea team: Sander, Moyte, Hughes, Cole, McQuillan, Hagget, Hough, Cottey, Westerberg, Woods, Sillett; Sub: Mullen.

Fielding a team which included six trialists at Arsenal, the lads gave a good account of themselves although losing eventually 2-0 with both goals coming from Arsenal striker Meade. The team defended particularly well throughout the match with Chris Sander being our outstanding player in goal with a string of brilliant saves. Playing against a very strong Arsenal side which included the likes of Meade and Graham Rix can only benefit the young players in the long run.

We are at last beginning to put things together, it was noticeable that the hard work that is being operated during training is bearing fruit. There is still a long way to go, but if we all persist and apply ourselves, then only good can come from our endeavours.

DID YOU KNOW?

In season 1922-3 in Division Two, Southampton finished the season with the remarkable figure of — played: 42; won: 14; drew: 14; lost: 14; goals for: 40; against: 40; points: 42.

Millwall did exactly the same thing in season 1973-74, the games played, won, drew and lost being the same, but goals for were 51, and against 51.

Notts County and Doncaster Rovers were both promoted to Division Two together in season 1949/50.

In season 1957/58 they were relegated together and went into the Third Division. Strange as it seems, they were both relegated again at the end of the season, to enter the Fourth Division.

The record for Least Points at Home in a Season is shared by Burnley (1889/90); Stoke City (1889/90); West Bromwich Albion (1890/91), and Blackpool (1966/67). All four clubs gained only seven points in a full season at home.

Wrexham paid a record Fourth Division transfer fee of £210,000 when they re-signed Joey Jones from Liverpool in 1978.

Combining Music and Sport THE VOICE OF THE SWANS

To play for a first-class team for over 30 years and never once lose your place may seem an impossible feat for any footballer. However it was achieved last week by none other than the fictional footballing hero — Roy of the Rovers. Through his stories 'Roy' has maintained a high standard of conduct both on and off the field, bringing enjoyment to countless generations of fans. He even once received an offer to make a record but turned it down! It looks as if 'Roy' and his team Melchester are all set for another long run at the top.

Though the season is just beginning Crystal Palace and Oxford United are already displaying a resounding lack of self-belief. The clubs were forced to postpone last week's mid-week match because of Milk Cup commitments, and have rescheduled the match for January 26th. This is the day on which the 4th round matches in the FA Cup will be played!

FOUR GOOD REASONS TO CHOOSE A BRAYDONNA, DEEPLAS uPVC INSTALLATION

1. GOOD INSULATION

The thermal conductivity co-efficient of uPVC is much lower than that of wood or aluminium. This acts as an immediate fuel conserver. uPVC is also a good sound insulator.

2. NO MAINTENANCE

Colour and finish of the installation do not change. Therefore windows and doors do not require painting. Washing with water is all that's needed.

3. WATERPROOF

The natural waterproof characteristics of the material are increased by fitting a seal in the frame before it is welded. This makes it impossible for water to seep through at the corners.

4. LONG LIFE

The basic material was specially developed — the frames keep their glossy finish. uPVC does not rot or corrode.
